Joint Commission International Mission

A division of Joint Commission Resources, Inc.

The mission of Joint Commission International (JCI) is to improve the safety and quality of care in the international community through the provision of education, publications, consultation, and evaluation services.

Disclaimers

These are policies and procedures based on US hospitals. Therefore, the definitions and terminologies, references to laws and regulations, and some common practices may not be applicable to international (non-US-based) hospitals and academic medical centers.

JCR educational programs and publications support, but are separate from, the accreditation activities of The Joint Commission. Attendees at Joint Commission Resources educational programs and purchasers of JCR publications receive no special consideration or treatment in, or confidential information about, the accreditation process. The inclusion of an organization name, product, or service in a JCR publication should not be construed as an endorsement of such organization, product, or service, nor is failure to include an organization name, product, or service to be construed as disapproval.

This publication is designed to provide accurate and authoritative information regarding the subject matter covered. Every attempt has been made to ensure accuracy at the time of publication; however, please note that laws, regulations, and standards are subject to change. Please also note that some of the examples in this publication are specific to the laws and regulations of the locality of the facility. The information and examples in this publication are provided with the understanding that the publisher is not engaged in providing medical, legal, or other professional advice. If any such assistance is desired, the services of a competent professional person should be sought.

All example policies, procedures, and plans are offered only as reference material for development of your own similar policies, procedures, and/or plans. You should never copy an example policy, procedure, or plan to use as your own. They must be adjusted to match your unique organization, its particular population-based issues, and applicable laws and regulations, so use examples as reference only. The content contained herein is provided "AS-IS" and Joint Commission International makes no warranty or representation of any kind related to the content whether expressed, statutory, implied, or otherwise, including but not limited to, the suitability of the example policies, procedures, and/or plans for any particular purpose. The use of these example policies, procedures, and/or plans will not directly impact your accreditation or certification and is for your internal use only related to patient safety or healthcare quality improvement efforts. Joint Commission International assumes no responsibility or obligation with respect to the content, data, or information used to customize the policies, procedures, and/or plans. You assume all responsibilities with respect to any decisions made as a result of using these example policies, procedures, and/or plans, and for the content, accuracy, and review of such content.
